None until further notice

Pateley Bridge

Fr Maurice will say a strictly private Mass

At Pateley, From: Mon to Fri 09.30am, but may be asked to cover at St Aelred's next weekend, as he is doing this weekend See notice below in Fr Maurice's Message

Parishioners can be in SPIRITUAL COMMUNION during these Masses

The Bishops have given people a dispensation from attending Sunday Mass. People can watch Mass on T.V. or a computer, but there is no obligation to do this. Also watching Mass on T.V. etc. Is not attending mass.

Markenfield Hall

It is with regret that due to the public health and welfare situation, there will be no public services until further notice

Fr Maurice's Message

This week-end I am saying Masses at St. Aelred's, to help out in Harrogate, as the Dean isn't so well at the moment. I will say a Saturday evening Mass at 6.30pm and a Sunday morning Mass at 10am, so obviously I won't be saying a 9.30am Mass at Pateley Bridge. You'll have to be with me in spirit in Harrogate

The gospel is the Parable of the Sower. It's the parable about parables, the homily about homilies. How do we listen? Do we listen? Early in the lockdown, during Eastertide, I encouraged you to read The Acts of the Apostles. If you'd read the New Testament instead of watching Mass on TV, you could have read it all. Did God's Word take root in your life? Will it show in the post pandemic world if there is such a thing?

Live Streaming & Attendance at of Masses at St JOSEPH'S BILTON
